Policy

The President of Madison Area Technical College District (the “District”), and only those persons authorized by the President, may seek legal advice on behalf of the District. Legal counsel matters generally include:

- Board policies, procedures and governance issues
- Labor contracts
- Employment law and Human Resources matters
- Real estate matters such as leases and easements
- Student code of conduct matters
- Potential litigation
- Contracts for public works and construction projects, and other goods and services
- Financial legal services, such as bond counsel and disclosure counsel

The District may, in its sole discretion, solicit Requests for Proposals (RFPs) for legal services, and shall enter into contracts for such services by an annual letter of engagement.
